

STOWE

North of the Smoky Mountains, the Appalachian range reaches the Green Mountain State, where it tapers in altitude, but makes up for it in attitude. With room for a Large Pro I.C.U., the Stowe backpack is a stylish way to handle anything from a serious landscape trip up Mount Mansfield, to a pro job around town. It features an external organizer pocket, two side slash pockets, side compression straps for a tripod, and a stylish leather-sleeved grab handle for easy transport.
